PASTA INFUSED WITH MAUI-GROWN FLAVORS

[www.maui pasta.com](http://www.maui pasta.com)

Maui Pasta Company started as a roadside stand, selling pasta from owners Patricia and Ron Inman's driveway to help send their daughter on a school trip.

With growing interest, Maui Pasta Company started selling first at the Upcountry Farmer's Market, and then at Pukalani Superette.

Now, Maui Pasta Company products can be found at restaurants and grocery stores state-wide.

Owner and Executive Chef Patricia Inman studied two years in Italy, mastering pasta-making and other culinary techniques, and has a passion for all things Italian.

Maui Pasta Company uses only the freshest of ingredients, and all herbs that are infused into pastas and other products are organic and grown by local Maui-based farmers.
